

Fired village manager will be paid

MONTICELLO — The Village Board last night unanimously agreed to pay former Village Manager James J. Malloy about $6,000 in back, sick and vacation pay.

After about 90 minutes of negotiation, Malloy and the board were deadlocked over a settlement for what Malloy feels he is due, Trustee Gary P. Sommers said.

The board fired Malloy July 11, citing unspecified problems with his performance. Malloy, who had no contract, said he isn't sure what his next move will be.

The board said Malloy could pick up a check today for 33 days' pay. His salary was $47,500 a year.

Mayor Robert Friedland said it's possible there will be more negotiations.
